

Tomales Bay Watershed Council Presents:
7th STATE OF TOMALES BAY CONFERENCE
Friday, September 23rd, 2016

With events Thursday, September 22nd through Saturday, September 24th, 2016

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22nd

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 23rd

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24th

Tour of Millerton Creek Ranch

State of Tomales Bay Conference

Paddle the Bay & BBQ

Join MALT (Marin Agricultural Land Trust) and Stillwater Sciences to explore this productive agricultural ranch and dramatic natural landscape. Enjoy talks about the past, present and future of the ranch including “Carbon Farming” and fisheries restoration opportunities. Talks will be followed by a guided hike.

Time: 1:00 pm-5:00 pm

Registration: $25

Details: Register for address, spaces are limited to 30. Bring a bag lunch

Join us for the seventh State of Tomales Bay Conference focused on Tomales Bay and its tributaries through an exploration of science, policy and practice in the watershed.

Presentations on:

- ◇Water Quality and Fisheries
- ◇Ranching and Aquaculture
- ◇Wildlife and Resource Management
- ◇Climate Change and Current Research
- ◇Managing Tourism and Public Policy

Time: 8:30 am-5:00 pm

Registration: $50

Where: Inverness Yacht Club, Inverness

Join local wildlife experts & naturalists for a very special guided kayak outing and oyster barbeque. Guides from Point Reyes Outdoors will lead a paddle through the restored Giacomini Wetlands and out into the Bay. The paddle will culminate in a BBQ Lunch including Hog Island oysters and other local fare. Registration will be limited, so sign up early!

Time: 9:00 am-1:00 pm

Registration: $150 (limited spots available at a discount with your own kayak)

Agenda, details and registration at www.tomalesbaywatershed.org

Sponsors: Marin Audubon Society, MALT, Inverness Association, Marin RCD, Inverness Yacht Club, Lagunitas Brewery, Point Reyes Outdoors, Hog Island Oysters, Trout Unlimited, Richard Plant, Bovine Bakery, Avocet Research and others